This set is a very detailed map set that covers the German Army movement from May 11th to May 30th during the Second Battle of Kharkov. This was the German counter-offensive against the Red Army to eliminate the Izyum bridgehead.

*The images have been reduced slightly in quality to make the file size manageable (44 MB). The difference in quality is negligible and the lower resolution will serve most researchers, however if you would like copies of the original images (275 MB) please contact us.
